

How To Get Involved:

Pet overpopulation and animal homelessness is a community responsibility. Help by doing your part! The best way to get involved is to start in your community. Weather you have 40 hours a week or just 40 minutes, every little bit counts. Here are a few ways you can help animals in our community.

- Be responsible pet owners. Keep current identification on your dog or cat at all times. Spay or Neuter your pet. Always keep your dog or cat property confined or supervised. In addition to the basics -- food, water, shelter, and veterinary care – give your pet lots of love and attention.
- Make donations to your local shelter. Donate Food, can or dry; Old blankets and towels; or other needed supplies; News papers, Cat litter, Animal shampoos, Bleach, Laundry detergent. Please call your local shelter and ask what is needed.
- Lend a hand. Volunteer your time at your local shelter. Bathe and groom the animals, walk dogs, or play with cats and kittens. Help publicize an event. Contact your local shelter for information on what volunteer opportunities are available or look up volunteer information.
- Find that special someone. Choose your next pet for a local shelter, which has many wonderful dogs and cats and animals of different shapes and sizes just waiting for a permanent, loving home.
- Be a hero. Report Animal Cruelty and Neglect as well as Injured or Stray Animals You may prevent suffering and even save a life.
